

English Department

Year 10

Topic: Anthology Poetry

Learning Journey

Prior learning:

- poetry analysis in Y7, Y8 and Y9
- social/historical context in 'An Inspector Calls'
- academic writing skills in 'An Inspector Calls'
- comparative skills in Y9 non-fiction SOL

Learning sequence – topic title

Endpoint

Learning sequence – topic title									Endpoint
Main learning steps	Introduce main topics of analysis: content, context, imagery, theme, structure.	Exploring main topics of analysis in 'unseen' poem ('A Wife in London' – lessons 1&2)	Academic Writing skills: how to write about poetry. Writing to explore key themes in a selected poem.	Exploring main topics of analysis in anthology poems: -The Soldier -Dulce et Decorum Est	Making Comparisons : How do I write a comparative analysis? (lesson 5)	Exploring main topics of analysis in anthology poems: -Hawk Roosting -Mametz Wood	Comparison writing: Writing an analytical comparison (Lesson 8)	Exploring main topics of analysis in anthology poems: -The Manhunt -Death of a Naturalist -Afternoons -Living Space -Cozy Apologia -Sonnet 43 -As Imperceptibly as Grief -Valentine	Explore how a theme is presented in one poem you have studied. Compare how a theme is presented in two poems you have studied.
Key Vocab	Imagery caesura sonnet rhyme rhyming couplet meter rhyme scheme iambic pentameter structure anaphora stanza Euphemism onomatopoeia tone
Possible	What Might I Be Assessed On?								GCSE style Checkpoint:

Assessment Topics	Close analysis of individual poems. EG How does the poet present the theme of _____ in this poem? Writing comparisons between two poems. EG How do the poets present the theme of _____ in each poem? Annotations of individual poems. EG What methods does the poet use to convey their main idea or message? Short answer analysis questions. EG What effect does the following method have in this poem?	Part A: Analyse how a theme is presented in one named poem. Part B: Compare how a theme is presented in the named poem and in one other poem you have studied. Feedback: teacher diagnostic marking using GCSE mark scheme. Respond: students answer teacher questions in purple pen
---------------------------------	---	--

Where will we use these ideas again:

Next half term – ‘Jane Eyre’

Literature analysis / social & historical context / academic writing