11th June 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are writing about the upcoming Year 10 examinations that are scheduled to start on 17th June. The start date happens on the same day when some families will be celebrating the festival of Eid-Al-Adha. Whilst we recognise we may not know the date of Eid exactly, we are expecting that it would either be the 17th or 18th June.

We understand that many within our school community will be celebrating with family during Eid. As a result we have arranged for the Year 10 exam timetable to be adjusted to ensure these two days do not have any exams and so no students will be adversely affected.

A new timetable has been shared by tutors and the Head of Year on the Year 10 Teams channel and a hard copy will be printed for them to have. Mrs Careless-Pye and the tutor team will be supporting students in the coming days for arrangements for these exams as planned.

Thank you for your support.

Kind regards

Helen Marriott
