English Department

Year 8

Topic: Malala

Learning Journey

Prior learning:

Diverse literature of Windrush Child by Benjamin Zephaniah Novella study of A Christmas Carol

	Learning sequence: Topic title							Endpoint
Main	To identify	To learn about	Malala's family	Extreme Islamic	Identify	Create a	Reflective	Summative
learning	context and	the history of	and roots who	views such as	themes and	transactional	writing on	assessment:
steps	the importance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.	'Partition' and how this has influenced the creation of Pakistan in the 1970s.	have influenced and shaped her to be the strong vocal woman she is today.	Taliban's, 9/11 events and the effects on the globe.	create a text linked to protest writing.	writing piece based around arranged marriages.	female inspiration.	Creative writing - write about a memorable moment or describe a scene with image provided.
Key Vocab	Feminist Taliban's	extremism Fiction Non-Fic partition Pakistan			Protest relationshi ustice Human right		arranged marriages Islam

Where will we use these ideas again:

- Feminist unit in Y9
- An Inspector Calls in Y10: Historical context of Edwardian society