

Memories fading away

I've saved a special place for you in my big, red heart
So even though you're in heaven we're not apart
You taught me how to love and how to stay when things get
Rough
But at the age of seven, handling all of those emotions was Tough

I'm starting to forget all of the small things
I really want to remember, yes I'm trying
It's so hard for me to hold onto the memories
It's like every day another one fades away

You were my biggest fan, you were there through it all
I believe you're looking down on me helping me to cope
But if I'm talking honest I'm not doing too well
Your absence has affected me and everyone can tell

I've savoured every moment that I've spent with you
I can't help but feel like I should have tried harder for you
So are you really in heaven looking down on me and Keeping me safe
Because I wish you were with me, helping me with all the Troubles I've faced

I'm starting to forget all of the small things
I really want to remember, yes I'm trying
It's so hard for me to hold on to the memories
It's like every other day another one fades away
